To mark @HeritageFundUK's #HeritageTreasures day we'd like to say a big thank you to everyone who has been involved in preserving our heritage treasures in our communities.

We'd like to thank those volunteers who have helped us keep our buildings open for Worship, Weddings, Private Prayer and Funerals in the midst of a very difficult year, and to all who have helped us financially. You're one of our heritage treasures! To name but a few; The Heritage Lottery Fund, Garfield Weston, The Welsh Church Fund, The Church in Wales and Llandaff Diocese, Heritage Emergency Fund, Caerphilly County Borough and The Wales Community Fund.

All of these efforts, both financially and in personnel, have helped us maintain our Heritage Buildings and also these efforts have allowed us to invest in new ways to reach out to people and to welcome them, for example we now have digital equipment installed in St Martin's Church Caerphilly which allows us to broadcast live services and other events. We love our heritage and the positive impact it has on our community and wellbeing and this last year has made us appreciate our heritage more than ever! Happy @HeritageFundUK #HeritageTreasures day everyone!
