Vestry Process

As you will know, we were unable to hold a Vestry meeting last year - with the consent of the PCC and our Archdeacon, we were given permission to postpone until this year with all officers remaining in post.

This year we plan to hold our Pre-Vestry and Vestry meetings on Zoom which allows people to join by phone as well as computer or tablet. This will maximise opportunity for attendance when our churches can only allow limited distanced seating.

The meetings will all start at 7pm as follows:

Tuesday 13th April – St. Catherine’s Pre-Vestry

Wednesday 14th April – St. Andrew’s Pre-Vestry

Thursday 15th April – St. Martin’s Pre-Vestry

Friday 16th April – Eglwysilan Pre-Vestry

Thursday 22nd April – Vestry meeting

Each meeting will begin with a short service of Night prayer at 6.45pm.

During this process we will be electing a new Ministry Area People’s Warden, the new Ministry Area Council (MAC), and new Church Action Teams (CATs) - there will be no sub-wardens. To be elected to any of these roles or to nominate someone you must be present at the meeting.

To join by phone, simply dial one of the local phone numbers and type in the meeting ID and passcode when asked. If you haven’t used Zoom before, please let us know - we would be pleased to help you gain access
